After seven long years of toxic politics and punitive policies hundreds of people continue to be held in immigration detention – and in suburban hotels – here in Melbourne, and in Brisbane and Darwin. These people must be released and resettled in our community – they need a place to call home. >>> Go to Time for a Home campaign

Join the Action this Friday 11 December at 3pm outside Josh Frydenberg's office, 695 Burke Road Camberwell

Speakers include

>> Robin Rothfield Labor for Refugees, Jews for Refugees

>> Rabbi Jonathan Keren-Black

>> Farhad Bandesh Currently detained at MITA, Broadmeadows

>> Marie Hapke Refugee Advocacy Network

Farhad Bandesh, who is being held at the Melbourne Immigration Transit Accommodation located in Broadmeadows (after six years held in PNG) will address the rally by telephone at around 3.30 pm.

His request to take paper and pencil out of the art class, in order to continue drawing out of class, was refused.

It will be Farhad's birthday and he will have a new song which he would like us to hear!
